Children's Education 2009 Summer Programs

Toledo Botanical Garden Children's Education 2009 Summer Programs

Animal Olympics

Michael Phelps can swim the 100m Butterfly in less than 51 seconds, but a sailfish could do it in 3! Michael Jordan can jump 2.6 feet high; but a Puma can jump 15ft high! Find out how you compare to the Olympic Champions of the Animal Kingdom. Learn all about adaptations while participating in this summer's "wildest" games!

Tuesday June 30, 9:30 - 11:30 am or Tuesday July 14, 1:00 - 3:00 pm

Ages: 6-12 Max #: 15 Cost: $15

Super Heroes of the Garden

Spiderman move over, we're going on a garden adventure to meet some true super powers. Creeping, crawling wonders that save the day by creating rich soil for all the garden's plants and animals to flourish. We'll get down and dirty discovering the dark underworld of dirt! You'll meet Wonder Worm, Milli Man and more. Come dressed for digging!

Thursday July 2, 9:30 - 11:30 am or Thursday July 16, 1:00 - 3:00 pm

Ages: 6-12 Max #: 15 Cost: $15

Garden Idol

Whether you sing like a canary, chirp like a cricket or croak like a frog we want you! In this class we will investigate animal communication. You will learn to identify birds by their songs, to "sing" like a frog, and to measure the air temperature by listening to a cricket! We'll explore the garden listening to the sounds around us and then you will make an "animal soundbox" and use it to compete for the title of Garden Idol.

Monday July 6, 9:30 - 11:30 am or Monday July 20, 1:00 - 3:00 pm

Ages: 6-12 Max #: 15 Cost: $15

Pioneer Life

Participants will travel in time as they discover our 200 year old Peter Navarre cabin. They'll get first hand experience with the chores, challenges and joys of life as a pioneer! Young pioneers will make a toy to keep!

Wednesday July 8, 9:30-11:30 am or Wednesday July 22, 1:00-3:00 pm

Ages: 6-12 Max #: 15 Cost: $15

Pottery Workshop

The first day of this two-day workshop will be spent creating two clay objects inspired by nature. When participants return the next week they will decorate and glaze their take-home ceramics. After glazing their work must be fired again, so participants are asked to bring a box with their name and phone number on it. They will be able to pick up their work at the Education Building at a later date. Each workshop will create two different pieces. You may sign up for both sessions. Workshops taught by Nancy Grindulis and other members of the Toledo Potters Guild.

Session One:

Tuesday July 14 and July 21, 10:00 am - noon

Ages: 8-14 Max #: 10 Cost $30

Session Two:

Thursday July 30 and August 6 10:00 am - noon

Ages: 8-14 Max #: 10 Cost: $30

New this year! Early Sprouts Programs

These programs are specially designed for 4-5 year olds. They are literature-based and will include a craft and a walk in the garden. You may join your child if you wish (only register your child). Each session explores a different topic so you may sign up for both sessions if you wish.

Session One: The Tiny Seed: Follow the journey of a tiny seed as young artists create a masterpiece that tells a story! They will identify plant parts, explore seed dispersal and discover how important plants are to the circle of life!

Friday July 10, 10:00 - 11:30 am or Friday July 24, 10:00 - 11:30 am

Ages: 4-5 yrs Max #: 12 Cost: $15

Session Two: Waiting for Wings: The wonder and mystery of butterflies is introduced as we learn new things about these beautiful friends of the garden! How do they see? Can they smell? How do they find their way home? Games and activities will lead young learners to these answers and more!

Friday July 17, 10:00 - 11:30 am or Friday July 31, 10:00 - 11:30 am

Ages: 4-5 yrs Max #: 12 Cost: $15
